GRAND JUNCTION HIGH SCHOOL
GRAND JUNCTION, COLORADO

Foreword

IN presenting this book to the students and friends of the Grand Junction High School for the year 1928-29, the Tiger has endeavored to catch and make lasting in these pages something of the real life and true spirit of our school. If, in later years, it will serve to bring back memories of activities and happy associations, the Tiger will have served its purpose.

Dedication

BECAUSE of her many years of unselfish devotion and service to this High School and more particularly to the Senior Class; because of her gracious manner, culture and refinement; but more especially because she is one whom the students must instinctively respect and admire, this 1929 Tiger is dedicated to our friend and teacher, Miss Hazel Ela.

Class History

I

When we go back to that first feeble dawn
Of intellect, we marvel much, we pause to swan.
We looked up to the Sophomores and stopped to say,
"Gee Whiz, won't we be glad when we're like them, some day?"

We surely were smart, that is, for our age;
We studied Latin and Algebra because it was the rage.
Gordon Jones was elected as president of our class;
And as June rolled around we felt sure we'd not pass.

But most of us did, because we worked so hard.
You'd think it from seeing the grades on each card.
No more was our color considered as green
When we received our credits. Say, wasn't it keen?

II.

In September we came back to school fresh and new.
Ed Woolverton was chosen to manage our crew.
In basketball and track the Sophs surely did shine;
In football Red Hiatt, Herb and Shep hit the line.

As Sophomores we thought that we knew everything,
But before we were Juniors a new song we did sing.
In the Senior Assembly we each had a seat
Among Juniors and Seniors; it couldn't be beat.
At last we were through with our Sophomore year;
Soon we'd be Juniors with nothing to fear;
For we knew that next fall we'd return to our studies,
Glad to be back with our chums and our buddies.

III.

Ha, now we're returning with grins on our faces;
We smile at the teachers and learn our new places;
But it doesn't take long to get into the swim,
As our studies we tackle with vigor and vim.

We elected Oral Shepardson as our class president,
And Mr. Craven, as adviser, with the class his time spent.
For our colors we chose silver and rose;
We had a motto—you know how it goes.

The Tigers (on the football team were Juniors, of course,)
Swept their opponents before them; it couldn't be worse,
To have seen North Denver, Paonia and Durango Get beaten so bad that themselves they could strangle.

In basketball, too, the Juniors did great,
Helping the team take third in the state;
On debating, rhetorical and the scholarship team
We strutted our stuff, and with brightness did gleam.

For the Junior-Senior we all had hot dates;
We danced, ate dinner and stayed out very late;
It was our parting farewell to the Class of '28,
Which to us Juniors seemed high and sedate.

"Ta ta, old beans," chirped we Juniors with glee;
"We'll take your places next year, don't cha see.
Thanks for willing to us your great knowledge;
We wish you success both in life and at college."

IV.

Now we are Seniors, noble and proud;
For four long years through our work we've plowed.
For Senior Class president Bob Denslow was chosen,
And in front of the class he did all his posin'.

At the Senior-Junior we stomped and pranced;
With our partners gaily through the gym we danced.
A more joyous crowd will never be found,
For in mirth and laughter it did abound.

Our class play we chose; oh, such a play!
In our memory 'twill linger for many a day.
"Yes, Yes, Go On" was a roaring success;
Miss Ela, as director, surely knew her business.

Bob Denslow, as Bobby, was such a fine actor
That he made a big hit and caused much laughter;
Marian, as grandmother, was so snappy and smart.
She helped Bobby to win Jazzmine, the girl of his heart.

It has been a great life for all of us;
We won't complain or make a fuss;
We have enjoyed every moment, dear school, so grand;
Thank you, old friend, for your helping hand.

Class Will

WE, the Senior Class of 1929, unsound of mind, though strong of body (especially in the feet), and in possession of all the faculties, do hereby affirm this to be our last will and testament, and do bequeath to the humble classes that follow in our mighty steps the various things which we feel we will henceforth have no use for and which will do them no good.

ARTICLE I.

1. To Mr. Hirons we leave our undying respect and sincerest affection, and, by so doing, hope to reimburse him for the trouble we have caused him the last four years.

2. To the Faculty we bequeath all the weird and astonishing information they have obtained from their frantic perusals of our test-papers.

3. To Pete, the janitor, we hopefully leave all the used paper he has collected during the year.

4. To the Juniors we leave our vacant places, with the hope that they will have all the misery we have had trying to keep them.

5. To the "Softs" we leave this good advice: "Always pick Study Hall to sleep in; then no 'prof' will awake you to ask the chemical composition of applesauce."

6. The Freshmen we advise never to walk on the grass; they might get lost and no one would ever find them.

7. To the whole school we leave the record of our marvelous deeds as a goal and spur for future generations.

ARTICLE II.

1. Bill Rump and Robert Denslow leave their executive ability to all future officers.

2. The gentlemen, Clarence Hannigan, Lawrence Phenix, John Lempke, Sid Rogers and Willard Goff, offer their correspondence course, "How to obtain a magnetic personality in fifteen short lessons," to the Class of '32.

3. Sam Hay and Bill Sullivan leave their collection of rare jokes to Lawrence Quinn and Gilbert Baylis.

4. LaVerne Thorpe and Cleo Carter leave their ability to cover 50 yards in -0 seconds to Clint Kelley.

5. The Business College Seniors donate their worn typewriter ribbons, used erasers and undecipherable shorthand notes to those of the future classes whom they feel can appreciate this magnificent gift.

6. Margaret Bradfield leaves her lipstick to the flappers of 1930.

7. Bill Hirons, Carrol Southwill and Paul Brothers donate their power to avoid work and get out of all tests to Jess Ellis, Bill Yant and Ralph King.

8. Frank Patterson leaves his inordinate longing for free speech everywhere, his ability to obtain it, and his brazen voice for taking advantage of every opportunity to talk, to Arthur Avi.

9. Beatrice Burckhalter leaves her basketball ability to Genevieve Roessler and Thelma Jones.

10. Harry Bengel leaves under his desk in the Spanish room an abundant supply of used gum for next year's class.

11. Robert Morgan, believing that every joke on the Scotchman has been used, now turns his office over to the tender mercies of ye next editor.

12. Annabel Cotton and Pauline Shellenberger will their beautiful blond locks to Virginia Rogers, along with their bottle of peroxide.

13. James Long leaves his marcelling set to Edward Vaughan, with the hope that he will use it to good advantage.

14. Oral Shepardson and Herb Westcott leave their football success to Cliff Wilson.

15. Nadene Borschell and Christine Hartzler leave their undying affection for one man, and one man only, to Carol Sharp and Lina May Smith.

16. Tiny Tysor and Lena Cardman bequeath their avoirdupois to be equally distributed among the underweight freshmen.

17. Nancy Blodgett leaves her ability to do calisthenics with a La Salle to Dale Grant.

18. I, Wayne Brown, leave my fame as a heart breaker to Raymond Eddy, with the hope that he will not abuse his opportunities.

YANKEE STADIUM FIGHT TO DRAW BIG CROWD

Two Weeks

From

Tomorrow

By Carroll Southwell

As this column is being read, the O'Connor dirigible, the "Alice P," is passing over the far-famed valley of the Colorado river near Grand Junction. Below, on the marvelously fertile soil, are situated the world-famous peach orchards of McMahon, Rooks, Divine, Carter and Company. Through chemical research, these progressive horticulturists have grown peaches weighing as much as 10 pounds each.

The Avalonda Theatre, which is being redecorated, will open May 12 with a full evening's program of dancing under the direction of George Hill. He bring with him thirteen of the world's most famous dancers—Lucille May, Mildred Jaros, Sara Payne, Hazel Hunnel, Mamie Cooper, Leona Derington, Dorothy McGinley, Gladys Lockard, Virginia Rucker, Meredith Sims, Mignon Womack and Helen Smith.

PARTY OF PROMINENT PEOPLE FOUND IN ANIMAL CONDITION

6 Animal-Like Humans Are in Deplorable Condition

Word has been received from the wireless operator on the S. S. Maryland that that ship picked up six animal-like human beings that are the only surviving members of the crew and passengers of the yacht Geo. McFadden, which was reported lost or wrecked about six years ago.

Those reported rescued are the owner of the yacht, Lawrence Ferguson, and wife, the former beauty, Charlotte Hyre, and maid, Hazel Thacker. Three members of the crew were also rescued. They are Captain La Verne Thorpe, Head Stoker Ernest Audino and Cook Barbara Garms.

According to the opinion of the surgeon of the S. S. Maryland, William Sullivan, there is no hope of recovery for any of the party.

Detroit, Mich., May 5.—(U.P.)—Panic and fire followed the crash of a huge Hannigan tri-motored plane, piloted by Sam Hay. The ship crashed into one of the enormous signs belonging to the Cochran Sign Co.

Denslow Accepts

Large Position

In R. K. O. Chain

New York, May 5.—(A.P.)—Robert C. Denslow, noted actor, who has lately been playing in Wayne Brown's Scandals, has signed a $5,000 contract with the R. K. O. Denslow states that he hates to leave the "Scandals," but that Thomas DeRose, president of the huge R. K. O. chain, has given him a much better offer than he had from Brown.

When Brown heard that Denslow was quitting him, he went temporarily insane and was rushed to the Long Insane Asylum.

Heavyweight Title at Stake

Again

New York, May 5.—(A.P.)

—The world's heavyweight title will rest with either Frank Patterson or William Walsh when they fight a ten-round match here tomorrow evening. Fight promoter Wallace Peck states that a record-breaking crowd is expected.

Patterson's manager, Raymond Perry, states that Frank is in good condition, excepting that his left eye is a little cut up from sparring mates. Dope has it that Walsh is overtrained; but his manager, Lawrence Phenix, says he is in the pink of condition.

Fire Chief Felmlee and Police Commissioner Schneider say that due precautions will be taken for the crowds. The fight will be put on the N. B. C. radio hook-up with Richard Dittman, the crack sports announcer, behind the mike.

Walsh, who is the challenger, will receive all proceeds over Patterson's $5,000,000 guarantee.

Coles and Bradfield Start Wayward Girls' Institution

Marian Coles and Margaret Bradfield, both high officers in the American Old Maid's Federation, have started a home for single girls at Carmel-by-the-Sea.

The first to apply was Miss Lorraine Chiesman, who had determined to live a life of single blessedness because of a lost love; but she soon changed her mind when Hugh Blackstone, leader of the Los Angeles City Band, heard of her whereabouts and married her at the Church of Divine Brotherhood in which Joseph Walsh is officiating officer.

Other members of the home are:

Nadene Borschell.
Winifred Phillips.
Rae Marie Puryear.
Helen Parks.
Lena Cardman.
Beatrice Burkhalter.
Reva Downey (broke her leg in dance contest).
Christine Carpenter.
Alice Howell.
Marguerite Schriefer.

WILLIAM RUMP STARS IN HIS LATEST PLAY

Coming next week at the Arms Theatre is the great Paramount production, "The Love Tragedy of Princess Louise," starring Margaret Shafer.

Playing opposite Margaret Shafer is William Rump, who is greatly in love with Margaret. A great love scene follows between the two, with the villain, Sidney Rogers, also in love with Margaret, until the Countess Nancy Blodgett comes into the story and captures both Bill Rump and Sidney Rogers. Then a duel takes place, the victory favoring William.

Famous Jazz Orchestra Gets Break In Largest Broadway Musical Comedy

Wickersham's Two Timing Five orchestra is to make its appearance on Broadway tomorrow night. This orchestra is composed of some of the most noted jazz artists in America.

The pianist, Belle Brown, is expected to bring forth great applause. The noted cornet soloist, Herma Guillet, will be a riot. Herb Wescott, at the drums, and Angelina Marasco, playing the trombone, are expected to bring down the house. The leader himself plays a saxophone. A large write-up given in the New York Times says that the orchestra (Continued on Page 23, Column 1.)

McKEEL STARTS ON MARS TRIP

Gerald McKeel, noted scientist and explorer, starts on a trip to Mars tonight. He takes with him his wife, La Vernie Tracy McKeel, and a crew of five men—Henry Patterson, Glen Moore, John Lemcke, Donald Kelly and William Hiron. Thomas Tysor tried to enlist on a trial flight, but the rocket refused to leave the ground, so his weight was checked off.

Waterworks Unsafe In Los Angeles

District Attorney Paul Brothers yesterday declared that the Los Angeles waterworks would not last another day. He said that the reservoir had been used for a swimming pool and that Ewing McCain had got stuck in a pipe that gives Los Angeles its water. Dr. Simino of L. A. says that, unless McCain is removed from the pipe, the water will be unfit for drinking. Plumber Rettig corroborated this theory.

TO TRY WORLD FLIGHT

New York, May 5.—(A.P.)—Harold Thompson, noted aviator and plane designer, stated yesterday that he would start around the world some day this week. He is flying a huge Pegasus plane, manufactured by the Sweetman Aircraft Company. A list of the passengers to accompany Thompson are: Jack Baker, Frieda Miller, Edward Pitts, Doris Dean Norviel and Bill Weaver.

Football

WITH only three letter-men back as a nucleus to build upon from the championship team of 1927, the beginning of the season looked anything but rosy for a successful season for the Tigers. And the coach, knowing that most of the strong rivals of the school had veteran teams, brought the team along slowly. As a result of this situation, a greater number of non-conference games were scheduled in order to give the Tigers all the experience possible before the opening of the conference season.

More candidates turned out for the team than ever before in the history of the school. Over fifty-five were out the first few weeks, and four full teams remained out for the entire season. Consequently more men earned letters this season than during any previous campaign.

The first game scheduled was with the High School of Moab, Utah, a non-conference school. The game was played on the home field. This was the first time that the Utah school had played on the local gridiron. It was a case of a fighting, green Tiger team outplaying a strong, experienced team on defense that won the game for the locals. Throughout the entire first half Moab gained through the Tiger line until down near the goal line, and then would fail to put it over. The Tigers played a defensive game throughout, and in the last half were in better physical condition. Finally, in the last quarter, Moab tried a long forward pass to one of their ends. It was intercepted by Carter, half-back, who ran for a touchdown. The final score was 6 to 0 in favor of the Tigers.

The following week the locals journeyed to Rifle, another non-conference school, and won the game 8 to 0. The offensive strength of the Tigers was better. The defense was able to keep Rifle from crossing the goal line.

The next week Fruita came up for the first conference game of the season. This contest was closely fought, and it was only in the last few minutes that the local team was able to score a touchdown as a result of a forward pass. They took the ball on their own 30-yard line and worked it down by a series of passes to score. Shepardson, captain, at full-back position, was outstanding in his defensive play and his ability to pass. The final score was 6 to 0 in favor of the Tigers. Again the defense was able to keep the opponents from scoring.

The next opponent was Olathe, another conference team. This time the team went up to Olathe. This game was hoped to be close, with the edge in favor of Olathe; and such prediction proved to be true. It was a very thrilling game to watch, with long runs and many passes for good gains. The Tigers scored first as a result of a fumble by Olathe. Kelley, Tiger back, picked it up and scored. The next score was the result of a tackle smash by Captain Shepardson. In both instances the Tigers failed to kick goal. The score at the end of the half was 12 to 0 in favor of the Tigers. But, during the next half, Olathe came back strong and, with a series of end runs and passes, succeeded in crossing the Tiger goal line for the first time this year. Then during the latter part of the last quarter they again scored on a pass, and kicked goal. The game ended 13 to 12 in favor of Olathe. Several days after the game the Olathe principal called up and stated that they had used an ineligible man against us and thus would have to forfeit the game to us. This made the score 2 to 0 in favor of the Tigers.

The next game was with the strong Paonia team at Paonia. Again the dope was against the Tigers, but, by using straight football, and with the fine offensive work of "Red" Hiatt and Captain Shepardson, the game ended in a tie, 12 to 12. This was really a victory for the Tigers on account of the fact that they held down a team stronger than they were.

The following week, Cedaredge came down and played on the local field. It was during this game that the local team really found itself, and was able to score four touchdowns to one for Cedaredge.

The next game was with Fruita on their field, and was one of the most thrilling of the year. The game was played in the mud, and was very even. The score was tied, 12 to 12, and only three minutes to play. The ball was in Fruita's possession, when they tried a pass. Shepardson intercepted it and ran 70 yards for a touchdown to win the game, 19 to 12.

The following week was the biggest conference game of the year. It was against Montrose, who was leading the league and who had a veteran team. The game was played in the mud, and the half ended in a scoreless tie. Then in the third quarter one of the Tiger backs dropped a punt and Montrose fell on the ball in the middle of the field, and, by a series of line smashes, were able to drive through to the Tiger 5-yard line on account of their superior weight. Then, on the last down, with 4 yards to go, they worked a fake play, which fooled the Tiger backfield, and scored. The locals came back strong in the last quarter and with a series of passes were able to reach the visitors' 30-yard line. Here a long pass was attempted to Hiatt, who fell with it over the goal line. It looked like a sure score, but the umpire ruled that he had dropped it. The final score was 6 to 0 in favor of Montrose.

Delta came next on the schedule. The game was played on their field. The teams were so evenly matched that the game ended in an 0 to 0 score.

The final game of the season was perhaps the most interesting of all. South Denver came over to play on Thanksgiving day. The game was played in the mud. The teams were evenly matched. The first half was played entirely in the center of the field, and the score was 0 to 0 at the end of it. Near the end of the game, South Denver, with strong smashes, was able to score. This was all of the scoring of the game, which ended 6 to 0 in favor of Denver.

The Tigers won six game, tied two and lost two. This was not a bad season considering the inexperience of the team. They ranked third in Western Slope ranking, with Delta second and Montrose first. The locals scored 78 points, against 42 for the opponents. The only conference team that was able to beat them was Montrose, the champions. This was the first conference game that the Tigers had lost since the beginning of the season in 1924.

Those who made letters were the following: Captain Shepardson, Vice Captain Dan Hiatt, Westcott, Wilson (captain-elect), Quinn, Felmler, Weaver, Hall, Sullivan, Rettig, Kelley, Hafey (vice captain-elect), Walker, Rump, Southwell, Bengel, Moore, Wickersham and Wm. Walsh.

First Row—Walker, Hiatt, Sisac, Holt (coach), Kelly, Langston.
 Second Row—Wickersham, Stotler, Brusse, Anderson, Brown, Porter, Bengé, Felmlee.
 Third Row—Hafey, Quinn (captain-elect), O'Connor, Westcott (captain), Shepardson, Hiatt, Wilson.

Boys' Basketball

THE basketball season was very similar to that in football. Due to the fact that only three letter-men were back from the championship team of 1928, the prospects for a good team did not look very rosy.

A very large number of non-conference games were scheduled early in the season, with the express purpose of conditioning the squad in order to prepare it for the conference campaign. A trip was taken to Montrose and Hotchkiss during Christmas vacation, in which the team lost to Montrose and won from Hotchkiss.

A week later the squad traveled to Utah for two games—one with Moab and the other with Green River; the Tigers won from Moab and lost to Green River by one point. These pre-season games seemed to put the team into excellent shape for the first conference game with Collbran, and also the first game on the home floor. In this game the Tigers accomplished an unusual feat, which is seldom seen on the basketball court: they won from Collbran by the remarkable score of 35 to 0.

Rifle came down the next week and lost to the locals by one point.

The following week our old rival and strongest competitor, Fruita, was defeated on their own court. This is the one game that the Tigers point for each year, and it was with great satisfaction that victory came to us.

A short time after this, the team left for their annual trip to Glenwood Springs and Rifle. The result was disastrous to the Tigers, as they lost both games.

The next important game was a return engagement with Fruita, played on the local floor. From the very beginning of the contest there was no doubt as to the ultimate outcome, as the Tigers outplayed their rivals in all the departments of the game. This made the locals the champions of the Grand Valley Conference and gave them the right to play in the Western Slope tournament at Delta.

On account of their lack of experience, the Tigers were not expected to go far in the tournament. They had the hard luck to draw the strongest team in the first game, Gunnison, and lost it. They did not win a game and ranked fourth in western Colorado at the finish of the season.

Those who made letters were Captain Westcott, Shepardon, O'Connor, Hiatt, Hafey, Bengel, L. Quinn, Wilson, Porter and D. Kelly.

Lawrence Quinn was elected captain for next year and Charles Hafey vice captain.

The team won nine games and lost eight games.

Girls' Basketball

THE 1928-29 basketball season was very successful, considering that nearly all the material was new and only three letter girls were back. A very large squad of girls reported daily to practice, and it was necessary to divide it into two classes of instruction, thus making it easier for Coach Mrs. R. H. Holt to give more attention to the first squad and to develop the second squad into championship material for years to come.

The Tigresses fared even better than the Tigers during their season. Out of the nine games played before the Delta tournament, the Tigresses dropped only two, and both of these were to Rifle by the scores of 23 to 12 and 23 to 14. The girls won both times by large margins over their conference rivals, Fruita and Collbran. These overwhelming victories gave the Tigresses the Grand Valley championship and the right to go to the Delta tournament.

The Tigresses went to Delta determined to do their best. There they met with ill luck, however, and lost to Hotchkiss by one point in the first game. They came back with a strong determination to win in the next game, but Rifle proved too strong for them and they took their second loss, which eliminated them from championship running.

Thelma Jones, as captain, and Violet Moore, as vice captain, will lead the team next year. With Jones' unusual ability to hit the basket, Moore at center and six other letter girls back, the Tigresses should easily take the divisional championship and make an unusually strong bid for the championship at Delta next year.

Tiger Track Squad

THE prospects at the beginning of the season were bright for a winning team, with five letter-men showing up at the first call early in March. The team had many good sprinters; this would ordinarily mean a large number of points in most meets.

The first meet was a dual with Moab, Utah, on their track. This ended in a victory for the Tigers. The score was 87½ to 56½.

The next meet was an invitation high school meet held in Grand Junction. Five schools attended—Delta, Hotchkiss, Junior College, Rifle, Fruita and the Tigers. The meet resulted in a win for the Tigers with 60, Delta was second with 58 and Hotchkiss third with 22. The Tiger sprinters lived up to advance dope and were good for many needed points.

The following week the Western Slope Conference meet was held at Montrose. The Tigers were hit hard before this meet by having every one of their six sprinters declared ineligible on account of low grades. This included both the captain and vice captain. As a result, the team was made up of under-classmen in order to give them as much experience as possible in the years to come. Montrose won the meet with 67 points, Delta second with 36 points, Gunnison third with 22 points, Hotchkiss fourth with 17 points, Paoia fifth with 12 points and the Tigers sixth with 11 points.

The following week the fourth annual Junior College Interscholastic meet was held, with six schools participating. The Tigers made a strong come-back and won this meet with 56 points, Delta second with 37 points and Hotchkiss third with 33 points. Most of the sprinters were eligible for this meet and considerably strengthened the local team.

Sumner Wickersham was high-point man for the season with 49 points, and Oral Shepardson was second with 43½ points.

Those making letters for the season were: Captain Kelly, Vice Captain Felmlee, Shepardson, Wickersham, Thorpe, Archuleta, Bullock, Hafey, Wm. Walsh, Perry, Rooks and Carter.

The Orange and Black and The Tiger

THE Orange and Black has completed one of its most successful years since it was first published in 1919 as a small pamphlet, 8 by 11 inches. The Orange and Black has now become a publication of regular newspaper size, containing eight columns to the page and from four to six pages to an issue.

Each spring the student body elects the editor and business manager of the Orange and Black and the Tiger for the succeeding year. For this year, Robert Morgan was elected editor and Kenneth Newfarmer business manager. During the year, Kenneth Newfarmer was forced to resign because of his removal from this city. As his successor, the Executive Committee appointed Wallace Peck.

In each monthly issue the staff has endeavored to cover thoroughly all high school news and to give a compact and interesting review of the various activities. A record of the social functions of the various clubs and organizations has been printed on its pages; an account of the actions of our athletic teams on the sports page; the editor's sentiments on the editorial page; jokes, poetry and other bits of fun on the feature page; and news items and other serious and worth-while articles on the front page.

In November two representatives attended the eighth annual conference of high school editors and managers conducted by the Department of Journalism of the University of Colorado. A number of helpful suggestions concerning newspapers and year-books were received.

One of the innovations of this year's newspaper was the page, "Tiger's Tales." This section included jokes, poetry and other features. Another feature established this year was the column, "Off Guard," which, by satire and "crabbing," endeavored to suggest improvements to better various high school activities. Still another feature instituted this year was a series of vocational articles written by prominent professional men of this city.

A good indication of the success of the Orange and Black was the fact that it won first place in its class in the Colorado High School Newspaper contest.

By maintaining the same high policy of former years and by introducing new departments and systems as was seen fit, the staff has published a series of papers of which the Grand Junction High School may well be proud.

The Tiger, the student year-book of the Grand Junction High School, is published by the same staff that publishes the Orange and Black, the student newspaper.

The Tiger is a record of the high school year as nearly complete as editorial ability and financial limitations will allow. The Tiger staff have tried to catch and make permanently lasting through these pages something of the real life and true spirit of our school, and it feels that it has accomplished its aim in giving this year's book improvements in every section and in making it a better, more complete record of the activities of the school year than ever before.

AS the Girls' League completes its fourth year of organization, it has become a very important factor of our school life, and, although it is yet a young organization, its influences have been very far reaching.

It is the only organization which includes all the girls of the High School. Its object is to promote democracy, a friendly spirit and greater co-operation among the girls.

The officers are representative of the four classes. The president is chosen from the Senior Class, the vice president from the Freshmen Class, the secretary from the Junior Class and the treasurer from the Sophomore Class. Committees are comprised of as many girls as possible. The meetings are held every three weeks and are made up of a variety of business and social programs.

This year, under the two half-year presidents, a number of very successful activities have been carried out. The Big and Little Sister movement was again very efficiently handled. Every Senior and Junior girl was appointed a Big Sister to a Freshmen or new girl. It was the duty of the Big Sister to make her Little Sister well acquainted with the routine of the High School, her teachers and her classmates. The Big Sister also took her charge to the first Girls' League party.

Some of the other activities of the year included the assistance rendered at the Teachers' Convention held here in November, serving lunches to the various athletic and debating teams, assisting in the Red Cross Drive and Band Tournament, a hike, the annual Mothers' Tea, and a party at which the High School girls acted as hostesses to the Eighth Grade girls. The Girls' League also put on their annual stunt at the Piggleria and donated the proceeds to the Student Body Association.

The Girls' League wishes to express its sincere appreciation and great admiration for Mrs. Nellie M. Cullen, who was the adviser from the time the League was first organized up to the time of her death. Her ever friendly spirit and kindly help did much to make this important organization a success. The successor to Mrs. Cullen, Miss Mary Rait, has been very successful in her office and bids fair to win the love and esteem of the girls as did her predecessor.

Much of the credit for the successful year of 1928-29 must be attributed to the faithfulness and executive ability of the presidents, Mary Ryan and Fay Meders.

DURING the 1928-29 school year, the Boys' League experienced the greatest year of its existence. More interest was shown in the activities and accomplishments than ever before, and most assuredly the boys of our High School have more definitely established the League as one of our strongest student organizations. Since the Leagues were formed in the fall of 1925, they have grown steadily until they exert more influence over the student body than perhaps any other organization.

Every boy of the Senior High School is a member. Regular meetings occurred twice each sextile and special meetings were called as frequently as required. The meetings were held either in the gymnasium or in the Senior assembly hall, depending upon the kind of program to be presented. Several very good athletic and literary programs were enjoyed during the school year. Boxing, wrestling and burlesque stunts were featured on a few programs, and at other times the boys listened to some very good speeches. Not a small part of the programs has been furnished by the boys themselves in the way of musical numbers and declamations.

The boys are sincere in their support of the League and its ideals. The Boys' League stands for law and order, clean sportsmanship, good fellowship, patriotism and the furtherance of all things which tend to promote the best interests of our High School.

Through the League, several troublesome situations—a few regarding school conduct and discipline—have been nicely adjusted. The Boys' League is especially proud of the High School Police Force, which was organized and sponsored by the League from the time of its organization. Now the Police Force has become of such importance that it has a department of its own. The Freshmen boys attend to the raising and lowering of our national colors daily. The League has quite successfully managed a tennis tournament and an inter-class baseball schedule this year. The League assumes the direction of all inter-class contests, such as the sack fights, tug-of-war, etc. In this year's Piggleria, the Boys' League assisted in putting on "The Follies."

Both presidents of the League this year have filled the office very creditably. Much of the future success of the Boys' League will be due to the work done this year by Irwin Meders and Dan Hiatt, presidents, and Edar B. Roe, adviser. All of the boys are looking forward to a bigger and better year next year, if such a thing be possible.

The Student Body Association

WILLIAM RUMP

President	William Rump
Vice President	Genevieve Roessler
Secretary	Martha Williams
Treasurer	W. G. Hirons

THE primary purpose of the Student Body Association is to furnish opportunity for the students to participate in various activities and organizations which will be interesting and beneficial, and which provide a type of training vital to every individual, but not commonly provided for in the program of the regular classroom. The Student Body Association, as such, does not hold as prominent a place in the program of school organizations as in previous years. This decline is due in part to the spread of interest which naturally attends an enlarging program, and in part to the introduction of such organizations as are designed to meet more specifically the needs of the various individuals comprising the student body. The apparent decline in importance of this organization, then, does not necessarily indicate a complete loss of interest in or lack of need for such an organization, but, rather, may reflect a desirable readjustment which gives opportunity for participation to a larger number of the students.

Outstanding among the organizations which provide the most democratic phases of the activities are the Boys' and Girls' Leagues. These include, respectively, all the boys and all the girls of the school, and provide a common meeting ground for enjoying those things which are of particular interest to the group. Under the effective guidance of the advisers, Miss Rait and Mr. Roe, they have not only been an important socializing factor, but have also provided an opportunity to discuss and hear discussed matters of concern to each student. Elections are held each semester, thereby giving twice as many students a chance to gain experience in organizing and carrying out a program. Presidents of the Girls' League for 1928-29 were Mary Ryan, first semester, and Fay Meders, second semester; for the Boys' League, Irwin Meders, first semester, and Dan Hiatt, second semester. The rise of the Leagues to a position of influence among the students is a fine indication of the effective and worth-while program which they are sponsoring.

The Home-Room Council is the representative group of the students. Each first-period class is organized as a home-room group and elects its officers. The president then becomes the official representative of his group in the Home-Room Council. These groups afford an opportunity for each student to express his opinion and discuss matters of concern to the student body. Many fine and workable suggestions have come through the home rooms and the Council.

Under the able leadership of William Rump, president for 1928-29, the Association has gone forward in its program of providing activities for student participation and in readjusting this program to give the most worth-while results.

THOMAS DEROSE

Debating

THE Tiger Debating Team completed a very successful season under the excellent coaching of Mrs. Grace N. Smith.

The subject chosen for debate this year was: Resolved, that the recent policy of the United States of diplomatic and military intervention in Latin America should be condemned.

The study of the question began in the debating class, from which six members tried out for the team. At the try-outs, which were held December 19, Thomas DeRose, George Hill and Gertrude Casto were chosen for the first team, while Thelma Berger, Fey Meders and George Hillyer were chosen for the second team.

The first debate was with Fruita at Fruita. The local team won, taking the affirmative side of the question. The next debate was with Rifle at Grand Junction, our team upholding the negative side. These two victories entitled Grand Junction to compete for the Western Slope Championship at Montrose. After a very close debate, the Montrose team was awarded the victory and the trip to Boulder to compete for the State Championship as Western Slope Champions.

This year the system of elimination was changed. In former years each team debated with every other team on the slope, the high point winner being chosen for the trip to Boulder. This year, however, the slope was divided into two sections, the winning team of one section debating with the winning team of the other for the Slope Championship. This procedure gave fewer debates to a team and resulted in more time for preparation. As a result, each team had a very good understanding of the subject for debate, and those who heard the debate at Montrose thought it was unusually good for high school students. A marked improvement was shown in rebuttal work.

The prospects for a winning team next year are very bright. One member of the first team and two of the second team will be eligible.

Standing—Casto, Hill, Whitmyer.
Seated—Crawford (adviser), Sheldon, Broadhead.

Rhetorical Team

AT the annual Track, Rhetorical and Music contests, held at Montrose May 3, 4 and 5, the Grand Junction High School Rhetorical Team did not fare as well as it has in some past years. Since 1919, when we first sent a rhetorical team to the annual contests at Montrose, Grand Junction has won five times, the last year being in 1927. For the last two years, Montrose has won the cup, and needs but another victory to gain permanent possession of it. Another trophy was offered this year in addition to the regular cup, which made competition all the keener.

The local try-outs were held here late in March to determine the ones who would represent Grand Junction High School later. The winners of this meet were: Gertrude Casto, Argument; George Hill, Learned Oration; Faye Sheldon, Humorous Reading; Helen Whitmyer, Original Oration; and May Broadhead, Dramatic Reading. Every class in High School can boast of having at least one member of their class on the team.

At Montrose, the Rhetorical Team placed in three contests, namely: a third in Argument, a second in the Humorous Reading and a second in the Dramatic Reading. These three places totaled thirty points. Montrose won the cup for the second year in succession with fifty points.

The judging was done again this year by Dayton D. McKeen, instructor of English and Dramatics at the University of Colorado. This is the second year that Mr. McKeen has judged all the contests at the Montrose Meet and his work has been very satisfactory to all concerned.

Grand Junction's prospects for a winning team next year are bright, as only two members of the present team graduate.

THE J-R Club was organized in 1920 at an Older Boys' Conference, with the purpose of instigating and supporting all commendable lines of High School activities. It has come to mean to the High School what the Rotary, Lions and other service clubs mean to the city.

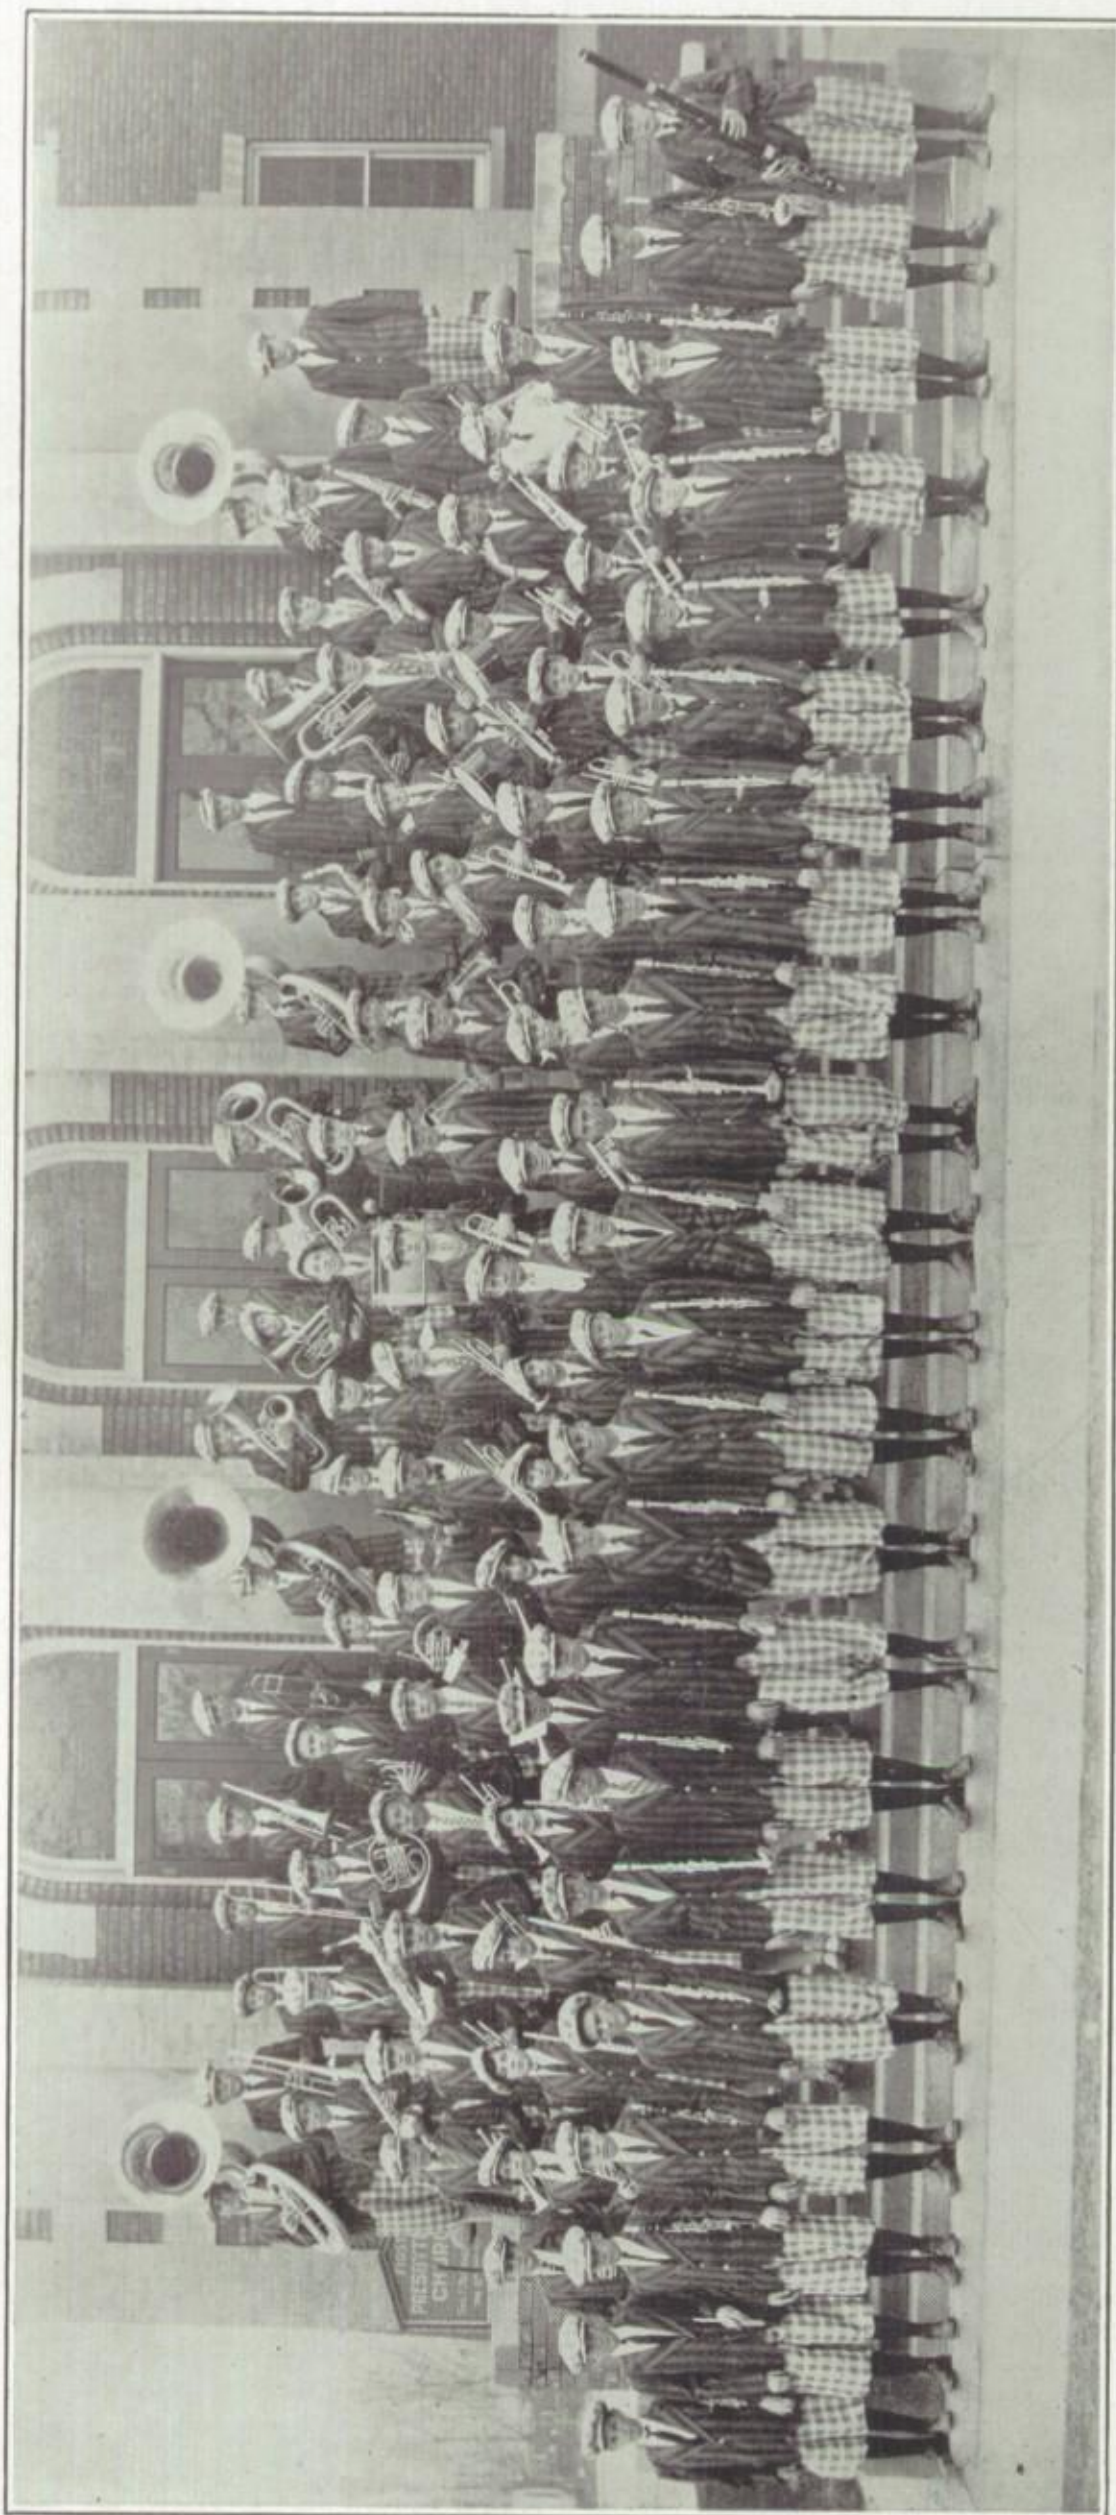

Some of the past services rendered by the club include the presentation of ribbons to winners in the Track, Rhetorical and Musical Contests held annually at Montrose; the erecting of a monument to the memory of Helen A. Dewey, pioneer teacher in the local schools; and the awarding of an annual cup for leadership to a High School student.

After a lapse of several years, the J-R Club again revived the annual custom of awarding a cup to the student who received the most points in scholarship, school activities, character and leadership. Following their annual custom this year, Richard Dittman, acting in behalf of the club, presented ribbons to those winning first, second, third and fourth places in the various contests at Montrose. The J-R Club conducted the Country Store at the Piggleria again this year and donated the proceeds to the school fund. This event is usually the premier attraction of the annual High School Carnival and usually makes more money than any other event.

The club meets every second week at the Country Club.

Under the capable leadership of the presidents, Richard Dittman and Herbert Westcott, the year 1928-29 has been highly successful. The club has given two annual dances; also it has held four initiations without great casualties.

GRAND JUNCTION HIGH SCHOOL BAND

Grand Junction High School Band

President _____ Hugh Blackstone
 Vice President _____ Ewing McClain
 Secretary _____ Gilbert Baylis

HAVING the smallest band at the State Meet in Denver last year, our band came home with third place, determined to enlarge the organization to meet the other larger Eastern Slope school bands. Rehearsals went on during the summer, and school opened with 65 students working in the band. This has since been increased to about 95 in both Junior and Senior Bands.

A new plan was taken up in the study of music in the band this year and, instead of practicing on a few concert numbers and a lot of easy marches, a rather systematical outline of study of folk music was taken up. Russian, Italian, English, German, Hungarian and compositions of American composers were included. Along with this, many standard marches by famous band men were studied, and Seniors of the band were required to work up two or three well known solos for their instruments. The cornet section has worked on many of the army bugle tunes, and our percussion section took on some work in famous drum tunes. This has worked quite well, and those boys and girls graduating this year should be equipped to enter any college or municipal band with a knowledge of the best in band music.

The band performed for the football games and for the basketball games, and played concerts, including programs at the Clifton church and local churches in this city. In January the annual vaudeville show, "The Twins," was staged, with over 100 people taking part in the show. At this performance the new collegiate uniforms were used for the first time.

The parents, business men and interested people subscribed enough money during the fall to secure the new collegiate uniforms, which are a strictly conventional, football type of outfit. The blazer coat in orange and black, with the golf "plus four" breeches and golf socks to match, make a pleasant change from the regular heavy outfit which many bands wear.

During the recent tournament, Thomas Tysor, sousaphonist, took the grand first award for the best solo work. This was won over 34 contestants. Raymond Eddy, with his euphonium, took the third grand award. Robert Reed, cornet; Hugh Blackstone, trumpet; Willis White, marimba; Jessie Leah Williams, flute; also won first places in their groups, with Wayne Brown taking second place in the clarinet group. The band itself placed a per cent and a half behind the winner, taking second place.

The band was eligible, because of its high standing and grading, to participate in the National Meet at Denver, May 24, 25 and 26; but, because the major part of the 100-piece band going to Los Angeles with the Elks in July is to be made up of our band, it was decided not to take the Denver trip, since the Los Angeles trip is a much bigger affair.

Raymond Eddy was elected president for the 1929-30 band, and Rex Gigax, Frank Randall, Laurence Hoisington, Gerald Kinsman and William Gale were chosen to act as vice presidents and advisory board. Bryce Simpson was chosen to act as secretary. Plans by the new officers will include a better instrumentation and a larger enrollment. Better grades in school work and better appearance of our members on the school campus are among the things being worked out.

Orchestra

President _____ Nadene Borschell

THE High School Orchestra began its rehearsals with about 38 members, and after rehearsing regularly during the summer were ready to play short concerts in the early fall.

The Orchestra performed Sunday evenings in many of the churches in the valley and in Grand Junction during the winter, and became so good that, at the Orchestra Contest in Montrose in May, they won by an easy margin from their nearest competitor. Rulings that limit the contest orchestra forced us to cut down to about 25 members. This was hard to do, since nearly all the players and members deserved to make the trip.

The Junior Orchestra has about 20 members and performed during the last of May this year. The Seniors of the Senior Orchestra will play for graduation and the fourteen members will have a class orchestra in which they can take pride.

In the large Senior School Orchestra there are several groups which perform at small functions with instrumental sextettes, instrumental trios, duets, etc. This work gives training that is invaluable to the students.

Girls' Glee Club

THE Grand Junction High School Girls' Glee Club has had a year of hard practice, several concerts, enough fun and a trip to Montrose. The girls have been faithful and fine to work with, and their enthusiasm was not dimmed by not taking first honors at the tournament at Montrose.

A precedent has been set by the Glee Club that should be followed by all the musical organizations of the school; that is, of a uniform suit or "outfit" for all organizations of a musical nature. The girls this year were by far the outstanding group, so far as neatness, beauty and uniformity were concerned.

There were several Seniors in the club, including the efficient pianist, Pauline Shellenberger; but for those who will return again the motto is, "Next year will be better."

SENIOR PLAY CAST

Woolverton, Denslow, McKeel, Phillips, Brown, Chiesman, Walsh, Broadhead, Weaver, Coles, Perry, Garms, Burchhalter, Shellenberger.

Senior Class Play

"Yes, Yes! Go On!"

THE Class of '29 gave a very successful presentation of "Yes, Yes! Go On!" March 28 at the Avalon Theatre. The house was filled to capacity both afternoon and evening of the day of the play, so that a better financial success could not be anticipated. The artistic success was due largely to the ability and hard work of the director, Miss Hazel Ela. Dee Felmlee and Harry Benge proved invaluable in their positions of stage manager and property manager respectively.

"Yes, Yes! Go On!" was a comedy in three acts dealing with the complications of Mrs. Doris Deane's Shopping Bureau and the love affair of the flapper Jasmine and the spineless Bobby. The ultra-modern grandmother, who saved the day for Bobby and Jazz, was a great success. The cast was well chosen, headed by Lorraine Chiesman as Jazz, Robert Denslow as Bobby and Marian Coles as the grandmother. Every part was well executed, from the leading roles to the smallest ones.

Approximately one hundred and twenty-five dollars was cleared on the production. This amount will be used to present some suitable gift to the school.

Police Squad

Chief of Police _____ Robert Denslow
 First Lieutenant _____ Cecil Rooks

Second Lieutenant _____ Raymond Schneider
 Counselor _____ Edar B. Roe

THE High School Police Force has completed another very successful year of activity. Under the efficient guidance of Robert Denslow and his able assistants, the organization has won additional praise each succeeding time that it has been called upon to function.

Membership in the Police Force is a rather exclusive honor. Only those possessing the desired qualifications are chosen, and, if one may judge by the constantly increasing number of applicants for membership, the Force is gaining rapidly in popularity.

At football and basketball games and at track meets, as well as at concerts and operettas, the Police have very effectively handled the crowds, directed traffic and maintained order in a highly successful manner. At all times the boys have had the whole-hearted co-operation of the city police and the sheriff's office. Although evident, it may be stated with positive assurance that no group is more dominant in the maintenance of orderliness and respect, or in the furtherance of the ideals of the High School than the Police Force. Already a new and larger program is being planned for the next year.

Besides the officers mentioned above, the following were regular members of the Force: Willis Strain, Lawrence Phenix, Edwin Yeager, Lloyd Devine, Henry Brown, Mearl Young, Raymond Perry and Theo Sweetman. Besides this list, there were many reserves too numerous to mention. These reserves were called on duty only at times when a great many men were needed.

The following letter, received after the Band Tournament held in this city, is typical of the commendation merited by the organization.

Grand Junction Chamber of Commerce,
 4/30/29.

Mr. E. B. Roe,
 Grand Junction High School,
 Grand Junction, Colorado.

My Dear Mr. Roe:

Our Board of Directors wishes to express appreciation for the remarkable services rendered by the High School Police Force, under the able direction of Robert Denslow and lieutenants, Raymond Schneider and Cecil Rooks, throughout the Band Tournament. Robert Denslow's executive ability was demonstrated on many occasions and much credit is due him for the fine manner in which his organization functioned.

Grand Junction is very proud of the High School Police Squad, and particularly so when an exacting occasion, such as the Band Tournament, presents itself.

Sincerely,
 W. M. WOOD, Secretary.

Hi-Y Club

President	Harry Bengé
Vice President	Carl Horn
Secretary	Jess Ellis
Treasurer	James Porter

THE Grand Junction Hi-Y Club organized early in September for its program for the year. At the election of officers, Harry Bengé became president of the club, with Carl Horn vice president, Jess Ellis secretary and James Porter treasurer.

September 22 four members of the club attended the Older Boys' Conference in Glenwood Springs. The Garfield County High School held its annual Water Fete on the same day, and three of the four delegates entered in competition against the best that Garfield County had to offer. While not winning the meet, these three boys scored a total of 39 points, and to Harry Peck went the individual honors for high point man of the Fete. He scored a total of 20 points by taking first in all events that he could enter under the rulings of the tournament. He was presented with a gold medal in honor of his accomplishment.

Bible study for the club was under the direction of Rev. Samuel Marble, pastor of the Grand Junction Methodist Church. The club took up the study of the book, "Jesus and a Boy's Philosophy of Life."

In January the boys entertained their fathers at a Father and Son banquet. Walter Walker, editor of the Grand Junction Sentinel, was the principal speaker at the banquet.

At the Glenwood Springs Conference the club had the honor of having Preston Walker elected a member of the State Older Boys' Council. The council is made up of 28 boys from over the state and it helps the state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. in formulating the Boys' Program for the state. At the Older Boys' Conference, held in Grand Junction in April, 1929, George Hillyer was elected to this council for the year 1930.

The Western Slope Older Boys' Conference, held in Grand Junction April 13 and 14, was the best ever held on the Western Slope. The burden of the work of handling the conference fell to the Hi-Y Club.

S. O. S. Club

President _____ Rae Marie Puryear
 Vice President _____ Velma Klecker
 Secretary-Treasurer _____ Eleanor Carson
 Sponsors _____ Miss Martha Dyer, Miss Elizabeth Ruggles

THE Home Economics Club was organized four years ago, and since then has become one of the most interesting clubs in the High School.

This year the club adopted a name and pin. The aim of the S. O. S. Club is to stimulate interest in the study of Home Economics. At the present time the club has a membership of 36 active members. Interesting meetings have been held throughout the year. At two of these meetings outside speakers presented the club with Home Economic discussions.

The S. O. S. Club served four different banquets during the year. The food section of the Pigglerteria was taken charge of by the S. O. S. members.

Nor was the social side of the club neglected. At the beginning of the year the members of the S. O. S. Club were divided into different groups, and at various times during the year had charge of the social side of the meetings. The club held two parties and a picnic during the year; however, the outstanding social event was the annual Mother and Daughter tea. A splendid program was prepared for the mothers, and, while dainty refreshments were being served, an informal social hour was enjoyed by the mothers with the members of the club and their sponsors, Miss Dyer and Miss Ruggles.

The S. O. S. Club members feel that the club has prospered both educationally and socially, and their desire is that it continue to prosper.

THE Ag Club, the oldest and most lively club in High School, has just completed its tenth year as an active club. It was organized in 1919 in conjunction with the installation of the Smith-Hughes vocational course in agriculture. The club, being made up of those taking Agriculture, and some honorary members, this year has a membership of 35. The objects of the Ag Club are to promote good fellowship, co-operation and interest in agricultural topics.

A new movement was started this year to organize the clubs of Colorado into a state organization under the name of "The Future Farmers of America." The first state convention was held at Pueblo during the State Fair, and Lawrence Phenix and Raymond Perry represented the local Ag Club.

One of the main activities of the year is the Western Slope Stock Judging Contest. This year it was held at Cedaredge, with Olathe winning first place and our team second. Clarence Wallis of Olathe was high point man, while Harold Newlan of our team was third high point man. Those taking part in the contest from our club were: Glenn Moore, Sidney Rogers, Bernard Brodak, Lawrence Phenix, Harold Newlan and Willard Goff.

In years past, the Ag Club has always put on some of the best stunts at the Piggleria and maintained that reputation this year.

Along the social line, the "Harvest Festival" was the most successful. This function was started last year and was met with such favor that it was decided to make it an annual affair among the Ag Club members and their lady friends. The two Ag picnics were also successfully carried out.

In looking back over the year's work there is but one conclusion and that is that this year has been the most successful in the history of the Ag Club.

Tennis Club

President	Harry Bengé
Vice President	Ewing McClain
Secretary-Treasurer	Virginia Rogers
Adviser	C. N. Lester

ALTHOUGH the Tennis Club is one of the newest activities of our High School, it has been active from the start and its members have been enthusiastic in supporting the program developed during the year. The Tennis Club was organized last fall by members of the student body who were especially interested in it as an extra-curricular activity and as a recreation. Thirty members comprised the original membership, and from this group officers were elected at the first meeting.

From the first, the members desired to promote a tournament either among their own number or among all High School tennis players. As the season was nearly over at the time of organization, and football and other activities were demanding most attention, no attempt was made to have a formal tournament. However, an informal schedule was drawn up among the members and played off before bad weather ended the season.

Another project which the Tennis Club wished to carry out was the conditioning of the court in Washington Park. The equipment for this court was purchased several years ago and was built by the Ag and Manual Training boys. The court was never surfaced, however, or made hard enough to play on. The work on this court, left unfinished last fall when bad weather set in, was again started this spring and the members hope to have the court in condition so that it may be used during the summer and fall, and so relieve the congestion on the city courts in some measure.

The success of the club must be largely accredited to the president, Harry Bengé, and to the adviser, Mr. Lester.

Standing—Hillyer, Southwell, Desch, Arms, Denslow, Schneider, Thompson, Patterson.
Seated—Woolverton.

Radio Club

President	Edwin Woolverton
Vice President	Carroll Southwell
Secretary-Treasurer	Robert Denslow

THE Radio Club is the newest of the many High School clubs. It is devoted to the study and experimentation of the radio field. It has joined the American Radio Relay League and takes the "QST" as official magazine.

Some time has been devoted to amateur radio communication and all members have memorized the code and have had buzzer practice. At various times radios have been installed under supervision of the club; one school banquet was entertained by a radio installed by the club members. Work has also been done along the line of speech amplifiers and voice transmission. Mr. Beattie has acted as adviser of the club during the year and much of the success of the club's activities can be attributed to his help.

The club meetings have been held in the evenings in the High School building.

Another successful activity of the club was its part in the Piggleria, the annual High School carnival. Although the membership of the club is small, the club feels that by close and personal fellowship it can accomplish its activities much more successfully. The members include Douglas Desch, Henry Patterson, Harold Thompson, George Hillyer, Raymond Schneider, James Arms, Edwin Woolverton, Carroll Southwell and Robert Denslow. There are great possibilities for such a radio organization, and, with an impetus such as this year's club has given to the movement, next year's Radio Club should surpass the present year's club and be a credit to the school at all times.

THE History and Travel Club has very successfully completed its second year of existence as one of the newer clubs of our High School. It was organized for the purpose of bringing the students in closer touch with the peoples of different countries, their lives and their customs, and to gain some idea of their development along the line of music, art, literature and other outstanding characteristics of any particular country.

The membership consists of those students who expressed a desire to make such a study.

Several programs have consisted of interesting talks given by people who have been in the different countries and could give the students first-hand knowledge about our foreign neighbors. Two of the interesting speakers were Miss Ela, who gave a talk of her travels in the Mediterranean countries, and Miss Stockdale, who sketched her trip to Europe last summer. In some of the programs the club has had musical numbers to correspond with the studying of the various countries. The members have taken the most interest in the countries of France, Scotland, China and Japan. The members of the History and Travel Club have taken great interest in preparing the topics for the programs.

Science Club

President _____ Theo Sweetman
 Vice President _____ James Arms
 Secretary-Treasurer _____ Bill Vincent

THE Science Club was organized in the fall of 1925. The four years of existence of the club in the High School has so firmly established it that it has been able to carry through successfully for another year, while many of the other clubs have fallen by the wayside.

The Science Club covers the many fields of science, with chemistry, physics and biology as the chief departments. It is beyond hope that any but a few phases of these may be touched upon in the short time of a year.

Under the department of chemistry, subjects similar to the following were studied at the meetings: "The Brownian Movement," "Construction of Atoms," and "The Balance of the Universe."

Physics covers the interesting fields of aviation, radio and electricity. These studies have become so interesting that this year separate clubs have been organized for their study. However, many interesting experiments and talks have been given on various physical phenomena about us.

Biology covers a study of life and living things about us. The knowledge of the living substances with which we daily come in contact is both interesting and useful.

The end of the year finds the Science Club completing a most successful year. A larger Piggleria stunt was put on and the club roll increased considerably.

THE Rhetorical Club was organized for the purpose of recognizing and encouraging the ability of the students in every form of public speaking. The work of the club has been carried on faithfully this year by the members and executive. Much live interest has been shown, which has resulted in the improvement and enlargement of the club.

The activities of the club this year have been numerous and varied. An interesting and entertaining stunt, "Beauty Parlor and Side Attractions," was put on for the Piggleria. Some peppy, worth-while programs were given at the meetings, providing an opportunity for the members to develop their talent. Pins were bought this year by the club members. Miss Crawford ably filled the place of adviser and accompanied the Rhetorical Team to Montrose. The annual banquet planned for the latter part of May was greatly enjoyed by the whole club. A short play, presented in the Senior assembly, May 15, marked the close of a successful year.

LOST! $5.00

A MAN who was accustomed to buying a certain kind of hat at $10, one day went into a near-by store and requested to see some hats. The salesman, knowing he did not have the brand of hat the man desired, brought forth a hat at $5 that appeared to be of good quality and style. The man bought the hat, pleased with the thought that he had saved $5. Within a very short time the hat became so shabby looking it was necessary to purchase another. This time he bought a $10 hat in the brand he wished and received very satisfactory service from it. He had lost $5, but he had learned a good lesson. It pays to buy quality merchandise, whatever it may be.

TODAY there is a great deal of inferior merchandise offered at cheap prices. The intelligent, discriminating shopper is not deceived by these low prices. He (or she) looks at the quality first.

YOU will find nothing but full count, full width, full weight, latest style, quality merchandise in our store. We carry the finest stock of dry goods, women's apparel and notions in western Colorado—all reasonably priced.

Our Ideal of Service

Every individual—every business—every institution, to be successful in the fullest sense, must have some great Ideal of Service, for which to strive; some star at which to aim; some goal to attain. Without such ideals, men and institutions falter and fail—or at least fall far short of their possibilities for Success through Serving.

To see how much can be put into a community, rather than how much can be taken out, is the dominating ideal of every J. C. Penney Company Store.

Remember That We Are Ready to Serve Your Wants

"Should a husband keep anything from his wife?" asks a writer.
Enough for lunch and carfare, we should say.

"I wonder why they say 'Amen' and not 'Awomen,' Bobby."
"Because they sings hymns and not hers, stupid."

PUT YOUR MODEL T FORD IN SHAPE FOR YEARS OF SERVICE

Our records show that the average useful life of a Model T Ford is seven years. That means there should be a lot of good service left in your car.

Don't sacrifice it just to get a new automobile, but bring it in and let us look it over. We'll tell you just what it needs and fix it up at low cost. The labor charge for completely overhauling the engine and transmission is only $20 to $25.

GIRLS— KEEP YOUR YOUTH

It will not be long until you are keeping house . . . taking care of a home. Don't let yourself become a "tired out" wife.

The wives that men like are shiney-eyed and fresh . . . always happy and ready to spend pleasant hours.

The modern woman has learned that she cannot keep her health . . . her sunny disposition . . . her pleasant manner . . . if she does the family washing. The modern laundry will take the home washing off her hands.

It will bring happiness into the home, and the cost is small . . . very small. You will be surprised that it costs less than the price of a box of candy to have the family washing done by the

When you MUST look your best

We forgot to add "A young man's fancy." . . . And any one of them is ample reason for you to make sure you look your best.

Modern dry cleaning processes have been marvelously improved, the same as the other remarkable contributions to today's fast-moving age. Not only does our improved process cleanse all kinds of fabrics perfectly, but there is absolutely no danger of harm to either the most delicate materials or the softest pastel colors.

CONGRATULATIONS, GRADUATES!

You are no doubt going out into the world . . . and many of you will enter the business world. One of the biggest things in business today is conservation.

Big business has learned that it pays to protect their investments. Hence, you see them painting their building and equipment frequently.

Keep things painted and they wear forever. Use Florman's
Paint and you have the best protection for this climate.
